

Shawnee Mission East High School Student Council

WHAT IS "STUCO"?

"StuCo," or student council, is the student governing body of Shawnee Mission East. Its members are from all grade levels and share lots of different responsibilities. StuCo plans and decorates for the school dances, puts on numerous fun activities for the student body, and plans and runs several charity drives throughout the school year, including the annual can drive for the Johnson County Christmas Bureau. On top of all of this, StuCo members develop indispensable leadership qualities and build camaraderie not only among themselves, but with the student body.
